Publisher's Mark.—A cross on a paper at the end of the subscriber's name signifies that the time paid for has expired...

The weather for several days past has been very pleasant, for the season.

Wagons now cross on the bridge over the river, at this place, although it is not yet entirely completed.

FREMONT CLUB.—The Fremont Club of Center township, met at the Court House, in this place, on Tuesday evening.

The Club adjourned with three cheers for John and Jessie—three for Colfax, three for Judge Egbert, who was present, and three for the Jessie Glee Club.

The Club meets again next Friday evening. We hope to see all our friends present, and as many of our Democratic friends as can make it convenient.

Mr. D. C. Brauman stated in a speech at the court house last night that the President of the U. S. Council of Fillmoreans—Bartlett—had offered to pay him to canvass the State of Indiana for Fillmore, and when Brauman told Bartlett that it would do no good...
